

BUGGY CONTEST WAS SUCCESS

James B. Garnett of Dawson the Lucky Man. Mrs. J. J. Featherstone of this City Drew one Vacuum Cleaner

W. A. OATES, OF OWENS-
BORO, THE OTHER

Although we only had two weeks in which to push our J. J. Delker Buggy and Vacuum Cleaner proposition it was a decided success.

The buggy and cleaners were on exhibition every day and attracted quite a good deal of attention. On Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock the tickets which had been deposited in a sealed box were well shaken and Miss Amelia Coil a young lady of Madisonville, was blindfolded and drew a number from the box. This was done in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris, of Mortons Gap, W. A. Oates, of Owensboro, Claude Porter, of Maniton, Miss Aileen Davis, of Madisonville, G. A. Endale, of Nebo and hundreds of others. The first number drawn from the box bore the name of J. B. Garnett, of Dawson, and gave him the buggy, the next number was Mrs. T. J. Featherstone, of this city, and drew one of the Vacuum cleaners and the next was W. A. Oates, of Owensboro and drew the other Vacuum cleaner. After the drawing was over the crowd were asked if they were satisfied and each of them testified it was as fair as could be, and they were perfectly satisfied.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION

To Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Brazelton

One of the pleasant events of the season was the reception given Monday night by the members of the Christian Church to their pastor, Howard J. Brazelton and his family. Invitations had been sent to every member of the church, and nearly every family was represented and a delightful evening was spent.

The affair was arranged by the ladies of the Aid Society and nothing was left undone that would contribute to the pleasure of the guests.

A delightful musical program was rendered with Mrs. W. K. Nisbet and D. M. Evans, Jr., at the piano. Ben Evans, violin, Miss Wheeler, of Greenville, who is a guest of Miss Irene Coyle delighted the audience with two solos. A sextette composed of Messrs. Browning, Rule, Dudley, Phillips, Howell and Rash, sang "God is Calling the Prodigal," which was significant inasmuch as the Brazeltons have returned to Earlington after an absence of nearly five years.

Delightful refreshments were served by the ladies after which the guests went home with pleasant memories of the occasion.

The event fittingly expressed the high esteem in which the church and community hold this splendid family and it is the hope that they are here to stay a long time and they will continue to wield the strong influence for good they always have.

CAPT. OTT L. POWERS

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Of Kentucky Y. M. C. A. Will Have Tent at State Guard Encampment at Anniston, Ala.

The State Executive Committee, of the Kentucky Young Men's Christian Association, is arranging to maintain a Y. M. C. A. tent with the State Guard at its encampment at Anniston, Ala., during the ten days of their stay in camp. This tent will provide facilities for correspondence, reading room, games, post office, religious meetings, entertainments and other features for the benefit of the men of the Kentucky State Guard. It has been the custom of the Y. M. C. A. for a good many years to provide a tent at the annual encampment of the State Guard, and it is a feature that is greatly appreciated by all of the officers and men.

The State Committee maintains the tent at its own expense and all of the privileges are free for the use of the Kentucky troops. Most of the leading newspapers of the State are on file in the tent, being donated by the publishers. The purpose of the Association in maintaining this tent is to provide a place where men may congregate under good environments and enjoy many comforts which could not be had in camp were it not for such a place. The tent has already proven a great help in safe guarding the morals of the enlisted men while they are subjected to many temptations to which they are not exposed when at home. This is a form of social service which is of a most practical character and is typical of the institution which provides the service.

In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a safe and valuable remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal. says: "I had kidney and bladder trouble for nearly six years, and was confined to my bed, unable to turn without help. Soon after I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and was relieved at once." His example is worth following. Foley Kidney Pills will do for others just as much as they have done for John Heath.
